2011 CDPHP® WORKFORCE TEAM CHALLENGE Race Day Facts

- Race start – 6:25 p.m., Thursday, May 19, 2011
- Awards ceremony – 7:30 p.m.
- The 3.5 mile race has been held in downtown Albany since its inception. The race starts at the south side of the Empire State Plaza near the State Museum, winds through historic downtown Albany streets and Washington Park before finishing again at the Plaza.
- This year race organizers expect over 8,000 registered runners and walkers, making up over 400 teams from Capital District corporations, government agencies and not-for-profit organizations. This follows a record number of participants and teams in 2010 of 8,654 runners and walkers and 449 teams.
- The CDPHP® Workforce Team Challenge is the largest running and walking event produced annually between New York City and Utica.
- 2011 represents the 31st anniversary of the race.
- All previous editions of this event have been produced, directed and hosted by the Hudson-Mohawk Road Runners Club (HMRRC). The HMRRC is the area's largest running organization. The Club was formed in 1971 and today has over 2,000 members.
- CDPHP® is the title sponsor for this year's race.
- This year's charity of choice for the CDPHP® Workforce Team Challenge is The Albany Police Athletic League.
